

Synchronous Teaching

Happens in real time

- students expected to attend a class/lecture when it happens

Asynchronous Teaching

May contain recorded lectures

- students not expected to attend in real time

RECOMMENDED TEACHING SUPPORT SEQUENCE

(Applicable for both teaching contexts)

- Teaching Supports for Remote Learning Courses (5 Hour self-register course)
  - Readiness to Teach Survey and Customized Support Tool
  - Course Development Guide

Cisco Webex Workshops

- Delivering Lectures
- Using Breakout Sessions

Video: How to Teach Synchronously with Webex (Mac & PC Versions)

Cisco Webex Ask an Expert

UM Learn Workshops

- Introduction
- Content
- Communication Tools
- Grades & User Progress
- Assignments & Rubrics
- Quizzes

UM Learn Ask an Expert

Video: How to use a Framework Course

How to use a Framework Course Workshop

UM Learn Workshops

- Introduction
- Content
- Communication Tools
- Grades & User Progress
- Assignments & Rubrics
- Quizzes

UM Learn Ask an Expert

(Applicable for both teaching contexts)

- Teaching Remotely: The Basics
- Teaching Remotely: Establishing and Maintaining Student Motivation and Engagement
  - Integrity Coffee Hour
  - Supporting International Students During the Covid19 Outbreak
    - Promoting Intercultural Competence in Times of Crisis
- Supporting International Students in Remote Teaching and Learning Environments
- Supporting Indigenous Students in Remote Learning Environments

*Check regularly for extra workshops that have been added on the Centre webpage related to teaching remotely.

